PROSPECTUS

INTRODUCTION

- The South Indian Association (SIA) established its first Tamil Medium School in the year 1947.
- With continuous support from Parents and well-wishers, it succeeded in bringing up a full-fledged English Medium School in the year 1965 at its own premises at Rambaug.
- The School is affiliated to Maharashtra State Board of Secondary Education, Mumbai Division.
- In 2015, the school moved from its existing premises at Rambaug Lane No.5 to a newly constructed facility at Khadakpada.
- From humble beginnings of about 300 students, the school has currently moved to a student strength of 5000 + students.
- School boasts of experienced and well trained teachers and has consistently achieved 100% results in the Maharashtra State Board of Secondary Education examinations.
- The Association has also established one more English Medium School at Kalyan in the year 2002 named New Sri Vani Vidyashala High School which also caters to about 1200 students currently.

AIMS & OBJECTIVES

- To achieve excellence in education and also to bring about holistic development of the students.
